Premiere: „The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged)“

Total verrückt und unglaublich komisch geht das International Theatre Salzburg in die neue Spielzeit. Vor einem Jahr hat das Salzburger Landestheater sein Angebot mit einer neuen Reihe englischsprachiger Produktionen erweitert. Nach „Shirley Valentine“ und „Hamlet (She/Her)“ kommen nun „Shakespeares sämtliche Werke (leicht gekürzt)“ in ihrer Originalsprache auf die Bühne der Kammerspiele.

A totally crazy, incredibly funny and absolutely insane project: all 37 Shakespeare plays in 97 minutes! The evening is a crazy rollercoaster ride for the audience, leaving not a dry eye in the house. The three actors transform from Romeo to Othello, from Cleopatra to the Merry Wives of Windsor in a matter of seconds. Not a single comedy or tragedy, no royal drama or history is left out. Whether to be or not to be, it was the nightingale and not the lark when Desdemona prayed to the night, because there is something rotten in the state of Denmark, or is that the question here?

“The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged)“ has been a success wherever it was performed in the world since its premiere! The audience in Salzburg now has the rare chance to experience the play in the original language. Directed by Marco Dott, who has already created numerous plays on the stage of Salzburg State Theatre, such as: „The Rocky Horror Show“, „Die Mitte der Welt“, „Biografie: Ein Spiel“ and many more.

The objective of the International Theatre Salzburg is to bring professional English-language theatre to all generations of native speakers as well as local audiences.
